Spirit Week 1997 was held from November 10th to the 15th. with class competitions every day at lunch, a spirit rally at lunch on Friday, and float building at night. Although we got rained out a day or two, Alameda High was buzzing with excitement. Monday started us off with Class Color Day, Seniors wore red with pride, Juniors were elaborat in green, Sophomores showed their class spirit by wearing orange, and Freshmen strutted their stuff in silver. Tuesday we didn't have school, but Inside Out Wednesday and Twin Day Thursday made up for it. On Friday it was time for all the classes to come together and show school spirit and unity by wearing Gold and White. Hornet Pride was in the air, and anticipatition about Saturday filled the halls and the field. As far as class competition went, Seniors placed first, Juniors came in second, next rolled in the Sophomores, and last, but not least, were the Freshmen. The 1997 Homecoming went very fast, but we all shared in its fun and memories.

Senior Disney characters meet in L.A. on the '98 float.

Homecoming 1997 was a huge success! All four classes spent five long nights working hard on their floats. With all of the floats looking great, the out come was close. Sophomores replicated New York City and won third place, and the fantastic Freshmen float of San Francisco came in fourth! Saturday morning began wet & rainy, with word that the parade had been cancelled. Fortunately, the floats were able to make their way down Park Street, with the absence of people along side of them to cheer. All in all, Alameda High did not let the gloomy weather dampen its parade!

2) Richmond bows downs to the Hornets after our victory

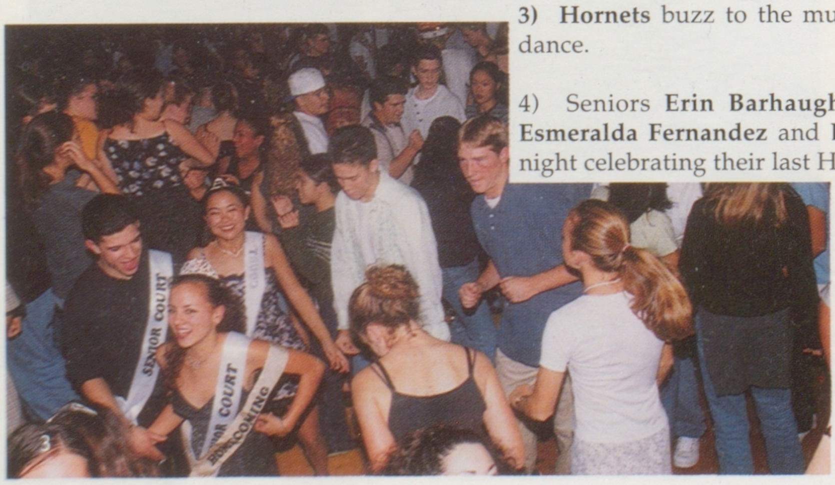
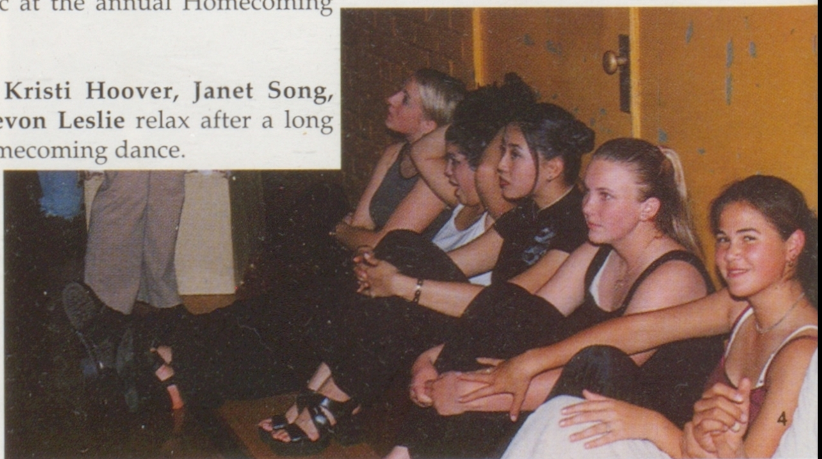
3) Hornets buzz to the music at the annual Homecoming dance.

4) Seniors Erin Barhaugh, Kristi Hoover, Janet Song, Esmeralda Fernandez and Devon Leslie relax after a long night celebrating their last Homecoming dance.





NOVEMBER 15

"The music s! I think the DJ had to go! They were hekka bad!"
- Courtney Mogg C/O 01

This year's Homecoming game was against Richmond at Thompson Field.. With a lot of hard work and training on the part of the football team and coaches, the Alameda Hornets beat the Richmond Oilers 46 to 6! As darkness fell, three hundred people gathered at the Larry Patton Gym to dance the night away and to celebrate. Some people loved the dance, some were less than thrilled, but hey, we beat the Oilers.

"The dance had corny music! I bounced early cuz I had to do some big thing."

Group Picture! The annual Regional Fall Training Conference was held at YMCA Camp Jones Gulch in Santa Cruz for Key Club members to learn and bring back ideas and information to help out the community and their club.

Who said community service can't be fun? The Key Club spent one of their sunny summer days at the Regional Project, Santa Cruz Beach Blast. They picked up trash, had a barbecue, and participated in a sand castle contest.

Bingo! Members of the Panda Club spend a day playing games and talking to th elderly at a convalesent home.

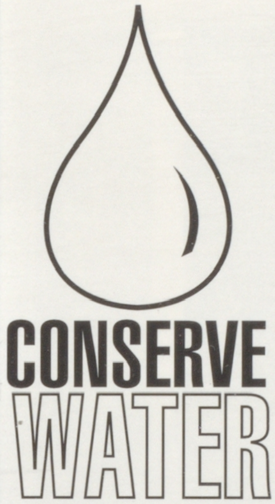
The Fourth of July Mayor's Parade was one of many events that the Red Cross participated in during the summer.

RESPECT · REDUCE · REUSE · RECYCLE ·

Hubert Chu
I participate in community service because it makes me feel good to help out other people and I enjoy it a lot.

Say Cheese! The Panda Club takes a quick snapshot with their new friends at a canned food drive. They helped people in need of food during the holidays.

Lily Yu
I enjoy doing community service because it's good to help out the community.

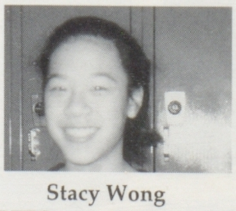


Whether it's picking up the trash on the shores of Jack London Beach, to reading books to illiterate children, Key Club, Panda Club, and Red Cross have helped to better the lives of all around the Bay Area. Thanks to these students, some families were fed at Christmas and the elderly got a little comfort on lonely weekends. Let's give these dedicated, hardworking students a hand for the heart they put into helping our needy community. As for the seniors, you needed 20 hours of community service, so we hope you got on the ball and completed this requirement. Good luck!

In the season of giving, the Panda Club prepares boxes of donated canned foods to be shipped to shelters all over the Bay Area.

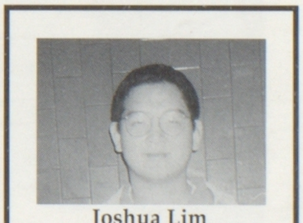
Dressed up and pumped up! Alameda's Red Cross sets up a First Aid Station at Wood Middle School.

Key Club members take a rest after a long day of set up and preparation for Oakland Chinatown's Streetfest. This two day event gave members the opportunity to meet new people and get to know the community.



Stacy Wong
RFTC was fun because I met a lot of people from different clubs and it was a good experience.

Tim Wong, Evelyn Cheng, David Tran, and Liza Otanes pause a second from their do-gooding to grin for the camera. They seem pretty happy picking up trash, so it must not be as bad as one might think. So, pick up a trash bag and plastic gloves and go to your favorite public place and have some fun!



Joshua Lim
For the holiday food drive, we got to distibute canned food to people who really needed it and I thought that was really cool.

Mr. Johnson

"He's very involved with the students and he tries to take care of the school"
-Eric Tom 9th

Mr. Johnson's favorite foods are DESSERTS!

"He's a real positive role model and has done a good job running the school."
-Sharron Craft 10th

Michael Johnson is Alameda High School's new principal. Michael is married to Maria Johnson and they are planning to have a child sometime this year. His favorite foods are desserts and his favorite car is a BMW. He enjoys reading, singing, and watching foreign films in his free time. Mr. Johnson says that his greatest accomplishment is making a difference in one child's life. When asked if he could change one thing in the world what would it be he said, "I would just love to be able to change all hateful hearts into hearts that love." When asked what he thinks of Alameda High, he responded, "Alameda High has wonderful students, a dedicated staff, and an administration that cares about the students and their futures." One of his main goals is to see that all students succeed in their futures.

"He's really understanding and he listens and cares for the students."
-Helay Noor 11th

Mr. Johnson's hobbies include reading, singing, and watching foreign films.

Lookin' good, Byron Palmer and his classic Mustang!

Honk! Honk! Though this is a common sound around Alameda High, not all students here are lucky enough to drive, and must rely on other, less luxurious modes of transportation. Before and after school, AHS students can be seen not only in cars of all types, but also on bikes, buses, rollerblades, skateboards, and of coarse, the most poopular way of getting around, feet! Yes, we have different ways of getting from place to place, but we always find a way to be where we want!

Before he goes in to get his lunch, Robert Soo Hoo cruises in his jeep Grand Cherokee.

IT'S TRUE, ELEPHANTS NEVER FORGET!

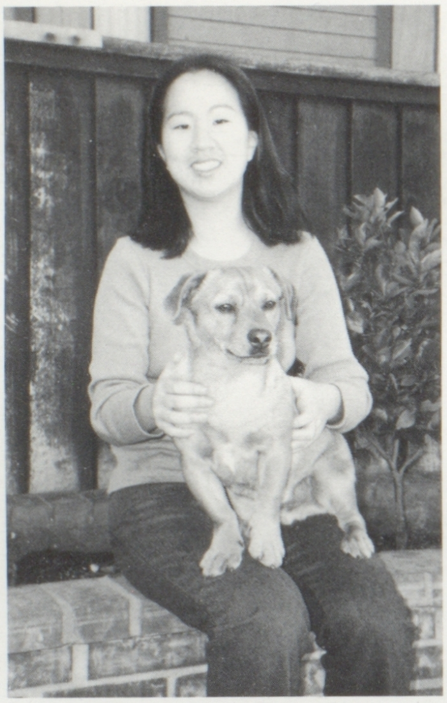
YOU KNOW WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT PEOPLE WITH TOUCANS, RIGHT? THEY'RE PRETTY NOSEY!

PEOPLE WITH BIRDS CAN CARRY A TUNE!

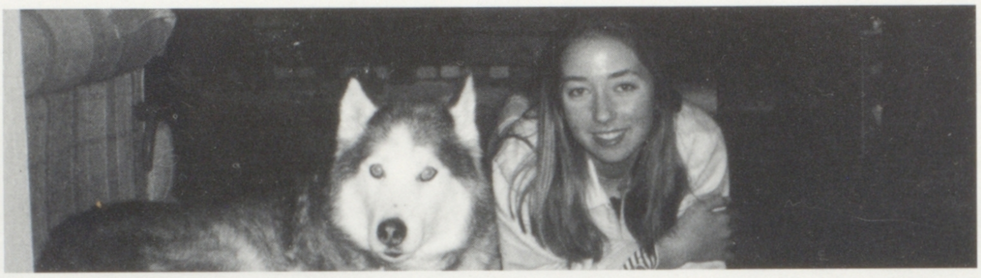
IT'S A FACT THAT PEOPLE WITH DOGS ARE MORE SOCIAL.

CATS LIKE TO SPEND MORE TIME ALONE!

PEOPLE WITH PIGS LIKE TO PLAY IN THE MUD!



Karen Yu's puppy Toby won't fit on her lap much longer.



Nope, that's not a wolf sitting next to Kathryn Thomas, it's just her Siberian Husky Princess.

AHS IS MADE UP OF MORE THAN A THOUSAND EXEPTIONAL PEOPLE, BUT PART OF WHAT HELPS TO MAKE US SO GREAT AT SCHOOL IS THE SUPPORT WE GET WHILE WE'RE NOT HERE. THIS LOVE IS NOT FROM OTHER PEOPLE EITHER, IT'S WHAT WE GET FROM OUR FURRY FRIENDS. EVERYONE HAS A SPECIAL PLACE IN THEIR HEARTS FOR ANIMALS, NOT ONLY BECAUSE THEY ARE SO ADOREABLE, BUT ALSO BECAUSE WE CAN SPILL OUR PROBLEMS TO THEM. UNLIKE SOME PEOPLE, THEY'LL STAY QUIET WHILE WE TALK.

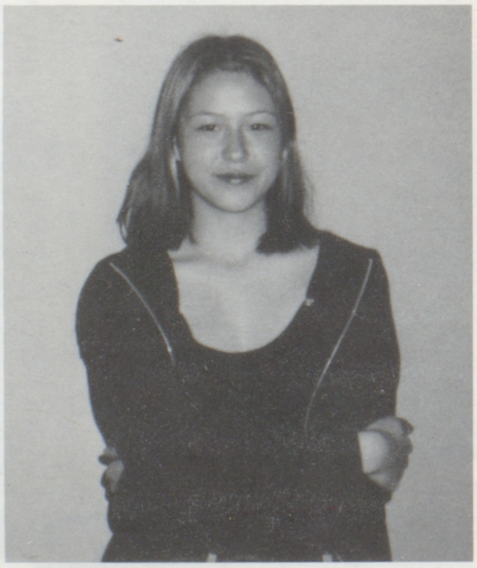
ANA JADRIJEVIC * CROATIA

HOW LONG HAVE YOU BEEN IN THIS COUNTRY? * "SO FAR 7 MONTHS."

WHAT DID YOU THINK OF IT AFTER ABOUT A MONTH? * "IT WAS TOTALLY DIFFERENT FROM MY COUNTRY. I ENJOY MEETING NEW PEOPLE, LEARNING ABOUT DIFFERENT CULTURES, AND LEARNING THE LANGUAGE OF COURSE.

HOW IS AMERICA DIFFERENT FROM YOUR COUNTRY? * "IN CROATIA, WE DON'T HAVE MANY DIVERSITIES, MOST OF OUR PEOPLE ARE ONE RELIGION, SO COMING HERE WAS VERY DIFFERENT, I ENJOY MEETING DIFFERENT PEOPLE. ALSO A DIFFERENCE IS EDUCATION. OUR SCHOOLS ARE MUCH MORE DEMANDING."

"FROM MY EXPERIENCE, WHEN I CAME HERE, PEOPLE ASK ME EACH DAY, 'WHERE IS CROATIA?', I REALIZED THAT TEENAGERS HERE ARE CLOSED INSIDE AND DON'T SEE MUCH FURTHER BEHIND THE WALLS OF THE U.S. THAT'S TOO BAD. I JUST WANT TO THANK MY FRIENDS, TEACHERS, HOST FAMILY, AND EVERYBODY FOR MAKING THIS EXPERIENCE UNFORGETTABLE."



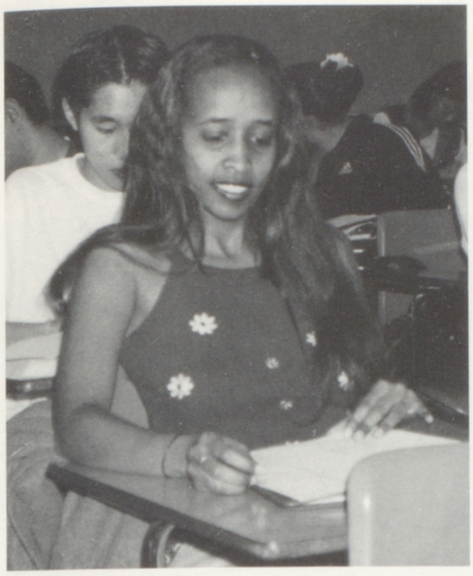
Jasmin Scholer * Germany

How long have you been in this country? * "Since April 29, 1997."

What did you think of it after a month? * "I liked the sun and the people are really friendly. San Francisco is the Bomb and Berkeley isn't bed neither. The grocery stores are huge. And the food is good. My boyfriend made the picture complete."

How is America different from your country? * "It's smaller and the schools are much harder. But the people are just as nice and friendly as here."

" At last I would like to thank all the people who supported me through this awesome year, especially my American family, my boyfriend, and my closest friends! I really love California, and I will be back for college in two years!"



MICAL MOSAZGI * EAST AFRICA

HOW LONG HAVE YOU BEEN IN THIS COUNTRY? * "ABOUT 8 YEARS."

HOW IS AMERICA DIFFERENT FROM YOUR COUNTRY? * "IT'S DIFFERENT BECAUSE THERE'S DIFFERENT PEOPLE AND DIFFERENT CULTURES AND EDUCATION. THERE'S NOT THAT MUCH STRESS OVER THERE AND PEOPLE DO NOT LIVE IN FEAR. THERE'S TOO MUCH FREEDOM OVER HERE. IT'S VERY STRICT IN AFRICA AND YOU HAVE TO RESPECT YOUR TEACHERS."

"MOST PEOPLE THINK NEGATIVE THINGS ABOUT AFRICA. I WOULD LIKE THEM NOT TO SAY THINGS ABOUT THINGS THAT THEY DON'T KNOW ABOUT. FOR ALL THE SENIORS, I WISH YOU THE BEST IN YOUR FUTURE AND LIFE."

Lin Zhao * Shanghai, China

How long have you been in this country? * "One and a half years."

What did you think of it after a month? * "I think the country has more freedom of expression. And I especially like the teachers and the school."

How is America different from your country? * "Here in this country, people cooperate with each other and in my country the people aren't really democratic. Here, teachers respect my feelings about failing tests and we have a difference between here and my home town."

"Yang, I hope you enjoy your senior year."

The Love That They both Share

She places her head on the sand,
Caring not if the grains scatter about the land--
Which is her mind,
Which is bound to perish certainly in due time;
She dreams of her distant love,
Buried in her Soul:
And up and down, emotions flow,
Gazing where the daisies blow,
Deep inside - she lets go,
The Love That They Both Share.

While roses wilt; she prays the matter--
That love they share will not soon shatter;
And dawn arises, still immersed,
Pondering of the love not shared.
Buried in Soul:
A shore without a sea;
Overthrown so very carefully-
Waves tumbling in her mind so very wistfully,
The Love That They Both Share.

There, in her thoughts, she winds down the path,
Caring not the rugged path;
Of passionate sorrows shared by none,
But herself and no other;
Buried in her Mind:
Holding up a shield of gloom,
About ready to face her doom
Of shattered love that she assumed,
The Love That Might Not Last.

There, in her thoughts, she stands all day--
Wondering if his love will stay;
And he not awake from his love before The Dusk,
And proclaim that he must go, he must.
Buried in Sure Destiny:
And she can't help but wonder why--
She feels so much joy, but wants to cry;
She reaffirms it musn't die,
The Love That They Both Share.

You are my only star in my blackened, forsaken universe.
My only love in a world of hate.
My bright, uplifting sun in my galaxy overcome with darkened moons.
You are my only word in my dictionary-but, yet without a definition.
You are my only sorrow in my thoughts of despair.
My only ship, sailing calmly in my ocean of tears.
Roughing through the uncharted seas of my soul bringing forth your unconditional love
In return for but a soft, sweet kiss.
The only petal on my wilting flower,
For you are the strongest of all.
The others were only sharp, jagged thorns tearing apart at my insides,
Spilling out of me, as if I were a bottle filled with a distasteful poison.
My only flourishing, blooming rose
In my garden of weeds, and cracked open seeds, salvaged by parasites and stolen away.
You are my wonderful cloud,
Filled with joyful, hopeful, happy rains
Falling down onto me and blanketing my emotions,
Blending with my salty tears of the past. The only being that bears a smile, even on the dreariest days
The only one that ever truly cared about the person that I really am.
The only one ever capable of invoking such a powerful love from me,
Filling my bitter heart with love and compassion.
O, my precious love, I'll cherish you always.
My only love in this world of hate,
My only reason to wake up in the morning,
And look forward to the dawning of a new day.
Each day is a new awakening from a sleep I've been immersed in my entire life.
Each day I wake up, thinking that the ache in my heart that I feel every moment of the day,
The feeling that is constantly exposed in everything I do,
Is but only a sweet dream that I will someday, suddenly awake from.
You are my only dream in my world of nightmares.

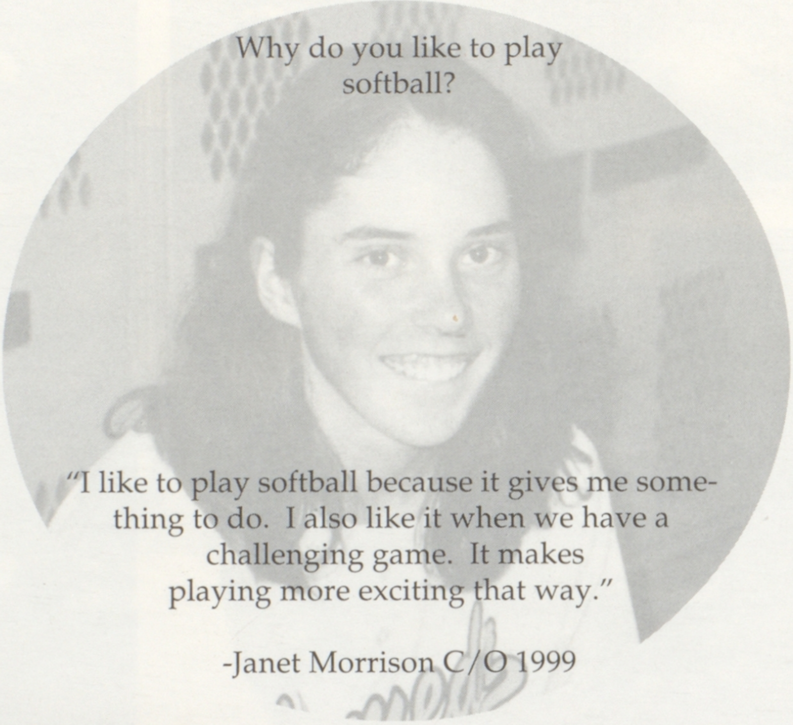
VARSITY SOFTBALL



Why do you like to play softball?

"I like to play softball because it gives me something to do. I also like it when we have a challenging game. It makes playing more exciting that way."

-Janet Morrison C/O 1999

Freshman Sarah Walker makes another great play at shortstop.

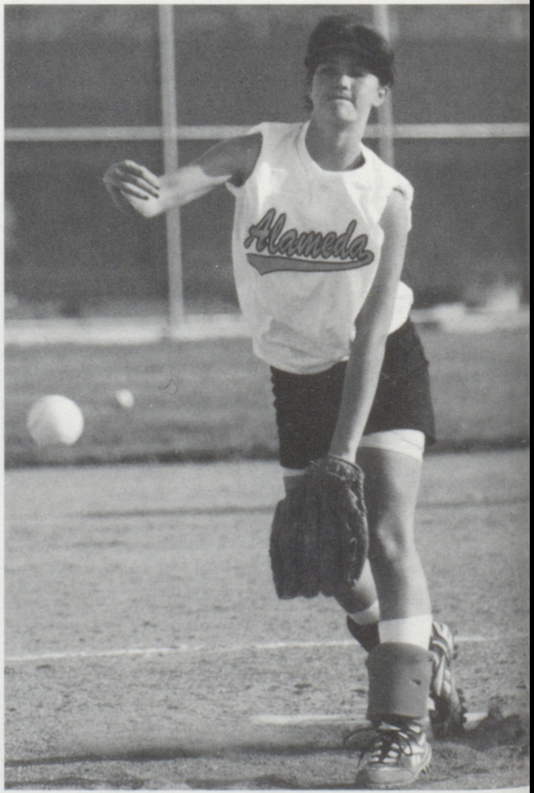
The varsity softball team worked incredibly hard this year. With many new players, the team had to learn how to work well together and put all of their efforts into having a fun and exciting season.

Playing third base, Brenna Sabbatini uses all of her strength to make the out at first.

Janet Morrison swings with all her might as she watches the pitch connect with her bat.



Firing another strike right past the batter is freshman pitcher Stefanie Keenan.

Kacie Piro, ready to bat, eagerly awaits the perfect pitch before she swings at the ball.

The Hornets carefully listen to the advice of their coach, Bobbi Sakraida, while resting in the dugout.

Doing a cheer before the game starts, the softball team is always excited for another challenge.

J.V. Softball Summary

The J.V. Softball team devoted itself to bringing the victories to Alameda this season. All of the games were challenging but our lady Hornets always managed to win and have fun at the same time. In particular they enjoyed their relationship with their coach who was always encouraging and fair. In spite of grade differences, the Freshmen, Sophomores, and Juniors got along perfectly and united themselves to bring success to the team.

No, they're not doing the full monty . . . the J.V. Softball team members have a ritual they perform between innings: it's shaking their way to the top.

J.V. Baseball Summary

Alameda Hornet's J.V. Baseball team had another successful winning season. There were many close games which the Hornets ultimately won, like the game against their toughest opponent - Arroyo. The Hornets were behind until the last inning where our Hornets came back fiercely and brought victory to Alameda. All the members of the team always look forward to baseball season because they have so much fun playing and, of course, winning.

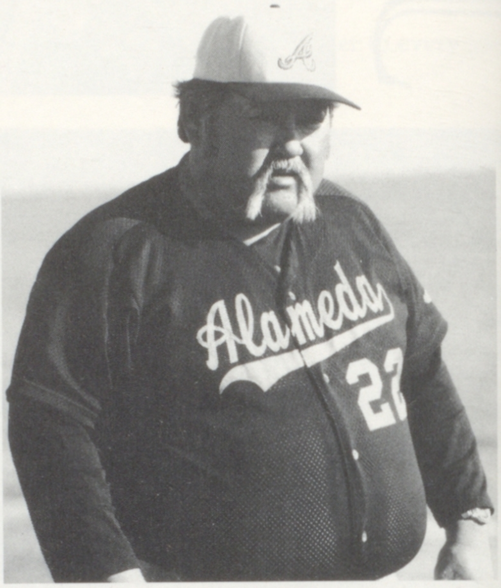
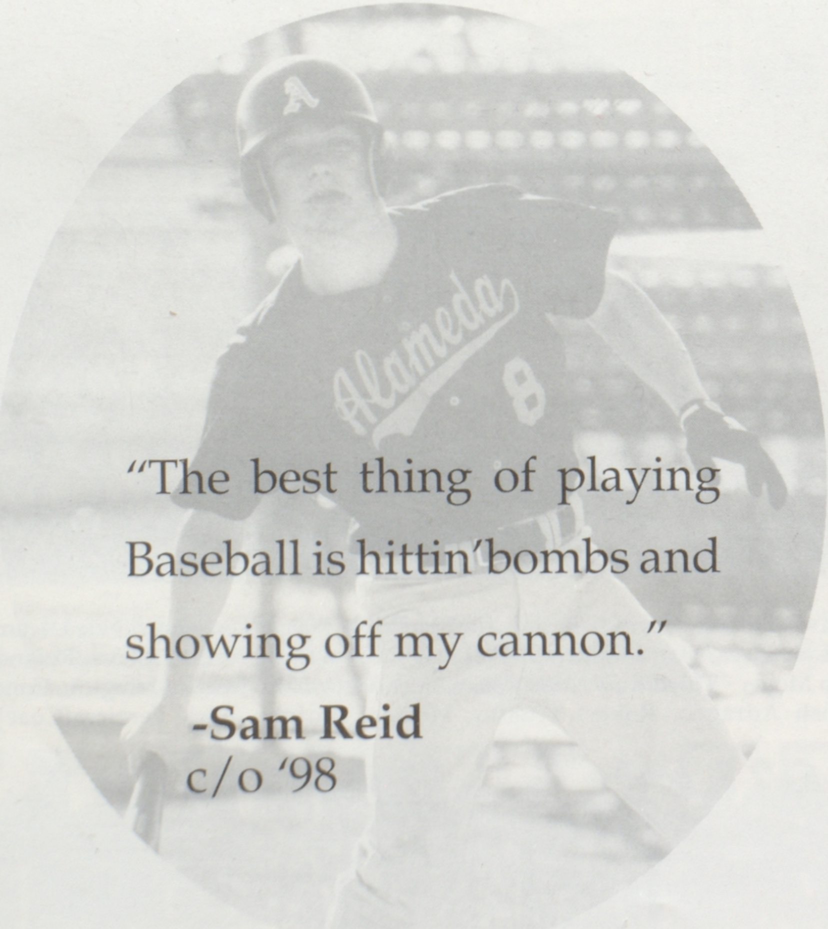
BASEBALL

VARSITY BASEBALL

Baseball, it is said to be America's favorite past time, and by the looks of these guys you can tell. The Hornets pictured here have put in lots of time, dedication, and effort to make the 1998 season an especially great one. The tradition goes on.



Coach Yamazaki carefully picks his lineup. The Hornets prepare for yet another victory to add to the list!



"The best thing of playing Baseball is hittin' bombs and showing off my cannon."

Rounding second base, Omar Vasquez begins a rally for the Hornets.

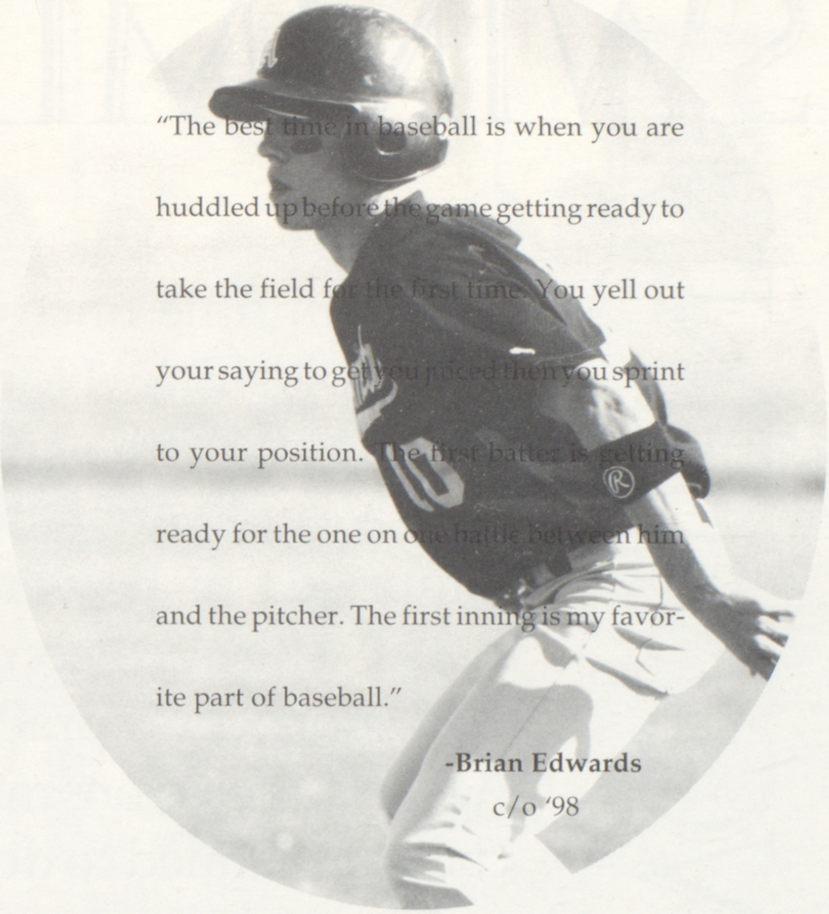
In deep concentration, Scott Cuellar waits for the ball. Scott plays first base for the Alameda Hornets.



"The best time in baseball is when you are huddled up before the game getting ready to take the field for the first time. You yell out your saying to get you juiced then you sprint to your position. The first batter is getting ready for the one on one battle between him and the pitcher. The first inning is my favorite part of baseball."

On a winning streak, Alameda High School's golf team is definately on a move. Practice after practice, they take it day by day. Golf is a skilled sport and a challenging one too. These guys eat, sleep, dream and speak golf. The team is very talented and some of them could be pros. Who knows?! Tom Hahn was ranked in the top fifth and now is number one. James Hahn played in the San Fransisco city tournament and beat a challenging player named Garry Banair. As for the others they are just as great! Go team go!

Young Hornets 2001-1999

What's the Buzz?

Freshmen

The new ones in the school,
try to act hecka cool,
but little do they know
they got three years to grow!

Working through their fears for the next few years
they've got plenty of days
to learn all the ways

Sophomores

They're not on the bottom,
but far from the top
seems like all this school
is never gonna stop

Searching for their flow
and kickin' it with friends
Sophomores wanna know
if this year ever ends

Juniors

Next in line
is the class of '99
With three years gone
Juniors get their grooves on

Waiting a long time
to finish their rhyme
the juniors are here
for their senior year

Boldly stating the fact that she's a freshman, Hillary Ratto doesn't mind being lowest on the totem pole.

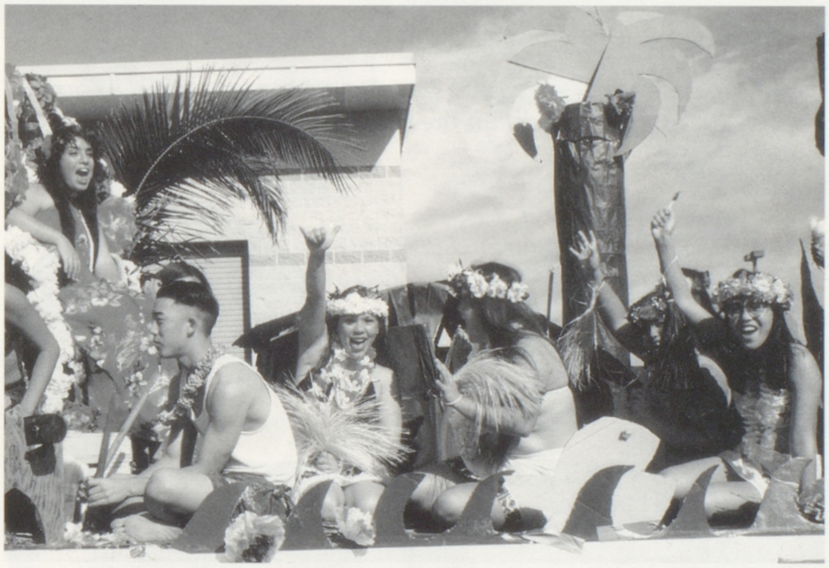
"Junior year is very challenging but I'm still having fun," BJ Kang says while kickin' it with his buddies Robert Soo Hoo, Jason Felipe, and Gordon Fong.

Our precious workers Vinh Bui and Kathryn Thomas are having fun and working hard to complete this yearbook.

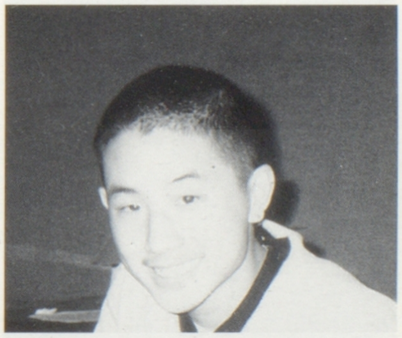
Don't they look happy? Brianah Burns and Diana Nielsen describes their junior year as a happy one.



"Junior year has been so stressful but I couldn't have made it through without my freaky-deaky best friends." says Mariam Aziz.

How's it feel to be
JUNIORS, JUNIORS?
How's it feel to be way up high?
How's it feel to be under classmen?
We don't know.
We don't stoop that low.

James Hahn won't even allow a shot of his face but Mark Chan proudly presents his face while being creative in his art class.



"Yeeeeah, my picture's in the yearbook now!" Justin Choi shouts with joy.

Spring Formal 1998
California Ballroom
April, 1998
Sponsered By the Class of 1999

A smile, laugh and a giggle between Shelley Mills and her date David Haun.

Junior Class Officers dress up one day to endorce Spring Formal and encourage others to join the festivities.

Philip Han holds onto Linda Huynh while having a dance.

Jeff Rosa and Janet Morrison smile while they take a moment to dance together.

Darren Hamlyn gives his big smile while having a fun time.

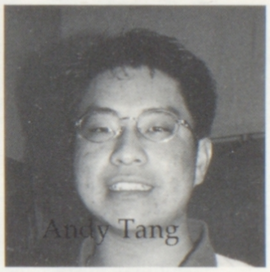
The anxious crowd stands around the dance floor waiting for their turn to show their stuff.

Shana Macasib

What was the hardest thing to do?
Meeting the deadlines and finding a site.
Did you enjoy planning it?
It was a lot of stress, but yeah, it was fun.
How did you come up with the theme?
We just thought of something simple and elegant and that could bring memories.
Would you help do it again?
Yes, I would.

Then we asked others:
Did it take you longer to find a date or a dress/tux?

A Dress, "I'm going single."



A Date.

"Ha, ha!" Colleen Congress laughs at a comment made by her friend.

Guess who? It's Winnie the Pooh! Dupe Thomas wants a big hug.

Winter Ball 1997
Starlight Escape

Princess Hayden lets out an "ooh" of relief after dancing with her date all night long.

Chris Langstaff, James Murphy and Nichole Lagorio rest their feet while the others have fun

Dancing together, Andrew Walker calls to a friend while Maura Passanisi leans on him.

Shayla Hunter and Abiye Gebre get down with their bad selves and let loose on the dance floor.

Alison Tom has a laugh while Yosuke Yoshida whispers in her ear.

1997's Winter Ball, Starlight Escape, put on by the Class of 2000 was an evening of twinkles and sparkles. Held on the night of December 19, 1997 - the last day of school for the year of 1997 - this dance was one to remember. The Larry Patton Gymnasium was decorated in colors of silver, white and blue. Everyone entered underneath an arch of blue stars and white lights. The lines for pictures were regretably long, but that was not the only thing to do all night. Music played and people danced from 8pm until 11pm having a ball. The Sophomore class sold roses andseved drinks, non-acoholic of course, and people enjoyed themselves from what the pictures proved. The night was one filled with high hopes and many treasured moments, and the Starlight Escape was a nice way to begin a long awaited vaction.

Ian Jackson and Sarah Walker gabb about who is who at the dance while Lisa Churchward looks on.

Below: Jennifer Yu holds date Khanh Thai tight through out the night.

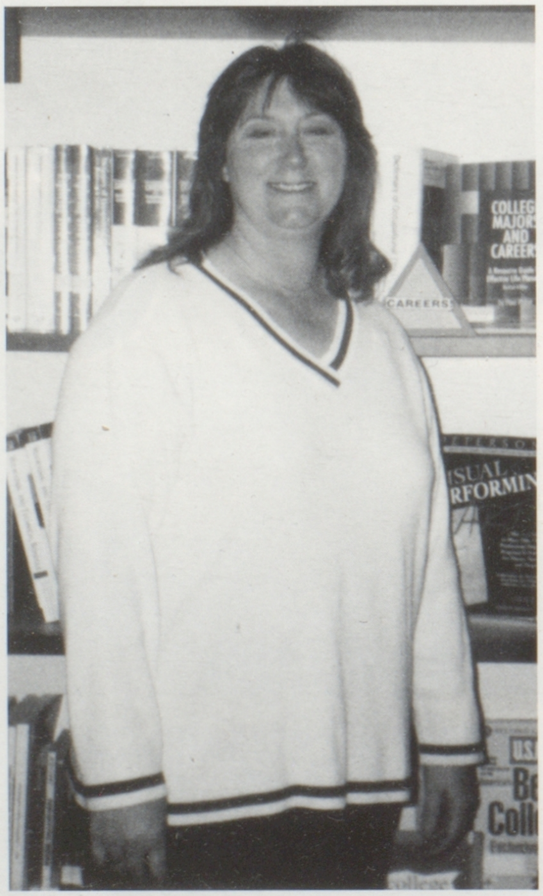
CAMPUS

In our school we have a total of three campus supervisors: Cynthia, Rebecca, and Sean. You may well ask what a supervisor actually does besides talk to one another. The campus supervisors do a load of work such as determine the reasons behind fights and arguments we students have. They help us solve all our problems in a mature manner instead of fighting it out and whoever is left standing wins. High school is not like junior high where anytime we were being bullied we could walk up to the teacher and be a say who did what.

The campus supervisors are kind of like a second set of parent. They are people who voluntarily keep an eye on us and help to create a safe and an orderly environment. Sean, Rebecca and Cynthia are caring and warm people whom students feel comfortable talking to and enjoy joking around with.

All of them were asked if they actually use the walkie- talkies. The answer would be yes, they use them to comunicate with each other and the principal, in some cases telling each other if there is a fight and that they need backup to help stop it. Although this particular job can be a little rough on the feet they all adore it. Each one of the supervisors like working for Alameda High because A.H.S. students are (or can be) respectfull.

Nice job guys, we all thank you.



Rebecca Mjelde, supervising anything that might be astray in the library.

Cynthia Rosenthal looks mighty stern wielding her badminton racket at wayward students and faculty members during the Student-Faculty Badminton Tournament.

SUPERVISORS

Smiling in the picture above is our beloved Cynthia Rosenthal. The reason she took this position is because she cares about the students and wants to lead them in the right direction. She has been a supervisor for two almost three years. When asked what she loves about AHS she replied with "The scenery. I think the kids and the staff are or can be respectful." The weirdest thing she has ever had to deal with at AHS is conflict. The best excuse she has heard for cutting is that I am coming from the nurses office, the worst being I can not get up on time to get to class. Before here, she has worked at Fabricated Metals, as a secretary.

"The staff and students show respect for one another."

Meet Sean Vinville. He took this position because he thought that it would be his way of helping kids in school. He has been a supervisor for five months. The one thing he loves about his job is that he does not have to sit at a desk. The one and only thing that he does not like is the rain. The weirdest thing he has ever had to deal with at Alameda High is that once there was a pigeon trapped in the stairwell. When asked, What is the best/worst reason you have ever heard for cutting?, he replied with The best is "It's bagel time!" The worst is I was getting potatoe chips, but they are nowhere nere a store.

"The kids here are so well behaved that I get bored sometimes!"

You may know Rebecca Mjelde. She has three children of her own. She took her position at AHS because she wanted to help with student development. She has been a supervisor for over two years. She loves her job because she gets to circulate among the students and help them solve their problems. The weirdest thing she has ever had to deal with was the egg fight of 1996-1997. The best/worst excuse she has heard for cutting were, the best- I have to go to the bathroom, but they are locked. The worst- The teacher does not like me. She uses the walkie talkies to comunicate with others.

"I love kids in fact I have three children of my own!"

English

Sik-On Law, Jody Li, Hue Quach, and Pheobe Yim celebrate Chinese New Years.

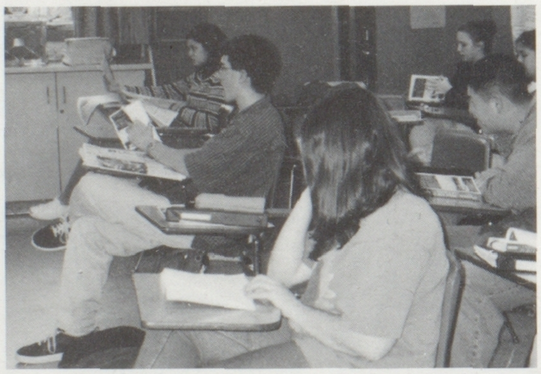
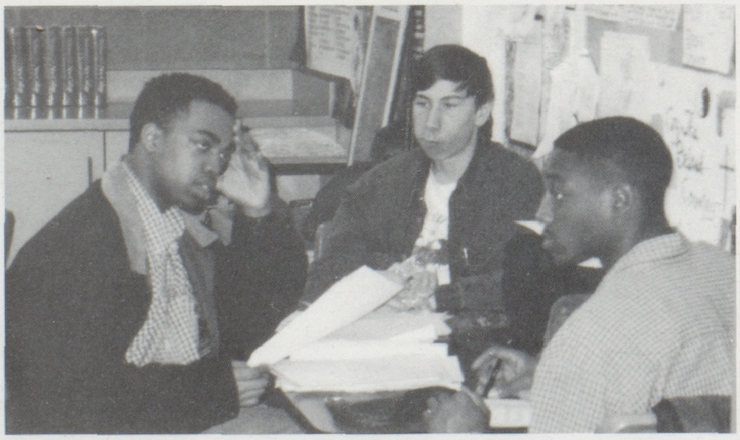
English is one of the most important classes in high school, but it is more than just books, lectures, and essays. Writing is the expression of yourself and your life. This country was shaped with the help of great American authors and poets. They depicted the times and challenged the times with compelling words of wisdom and ideals. Not everyone is a literary genius, but everyone has the power to express him or herself and his/her ideas through paper, as well as learn about other's expressions. Appreciation of literature is begun in school, but carried on throughout life. So when you think of English: Think Big.



Heather Kilmartin is totally captivated by her book.

In addition to teaching English, Mrs. Jones (left) and Ms. Klinger (right), along with a number of dedicated students contribute endless hours of work after school to Journalism and Yearbook.



Paul Hollins thinks long and hard about his paper as his group members wait for an answer.

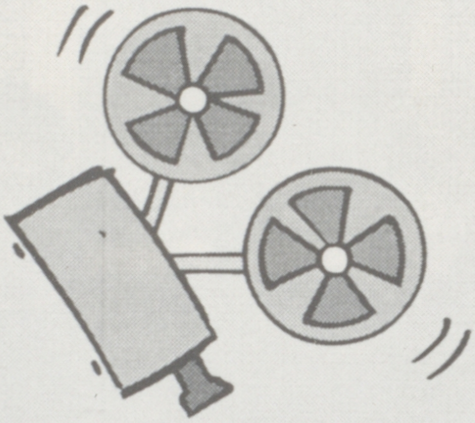
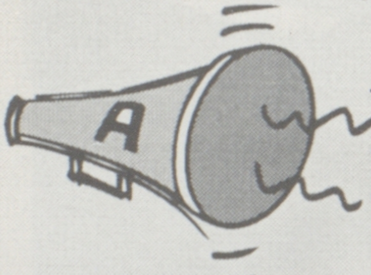
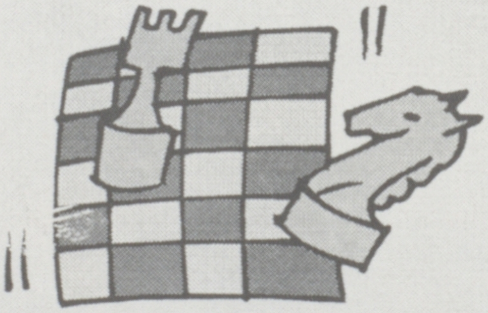
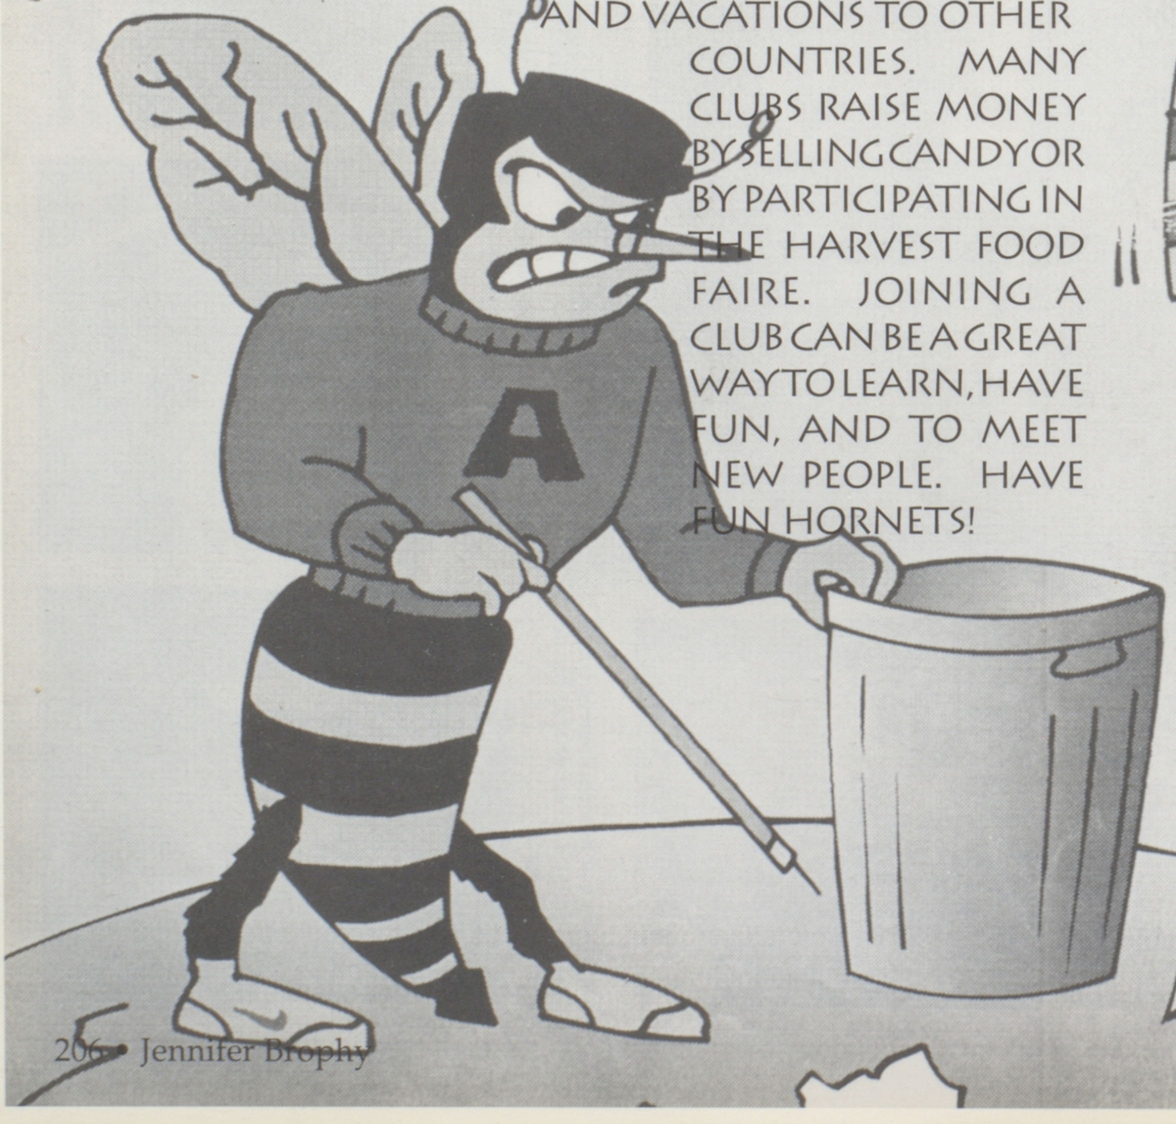
What's the Buzz?





HUNDREDS OF HORNETS TAKE PART IN MANY CLUB ACTIVITIES. A LOT OF CLUBS AT ALAMEDA HIGH SCHOOL HELP OUT IN THE COMMUNITY, TEACH US MORE ABOUT OUR ETHNICITY, OR SUPPLY US WITH FUN WEEKEND TRIPS AND VACATIONS TO OTHER COUNTRIES. MANY CLUBS RAISE MONEY BY SELLING CANDY OR BY PARTICIPATING IN THE HARVEST FOOD FAIRE. JOINING A CLUB CAN BE A GREAT WAY TO LEARN, HAVE FUN, AND TO MEET NEW PEOPLE. HAVE FUN HORNETS!





On the day of the Harvest Food Faire, all of the Hornets come out to enjoy and support many of the clubs that try to raise money. What a great day!

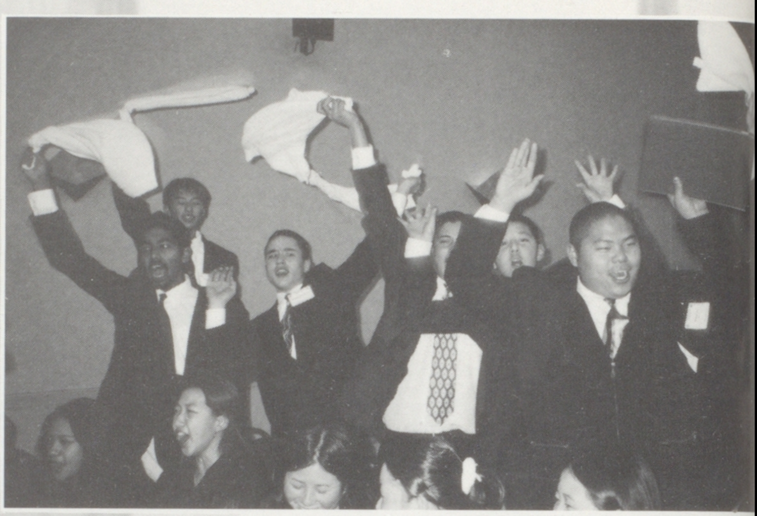
THE CLUB ROOM

These girls have a lot to smile about! They have just won medals, ribbons and trophies in the categories they competed in at the yearly DECA Nor-Cal competitions. Although not everybody won, they went home feeling like winners.



At the DECA opening session, the spirited girls and Whoridas whipped out their towels and ripped out their cheering screams to compete with the other DECA chapters.

Students from the Panda Club practiced hard for the annual Dragon Boat Race, but it wasn't all work, they had fun too! They came in at a pretty impressive 4th place.

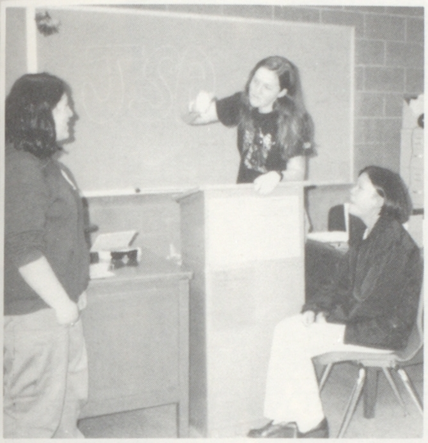
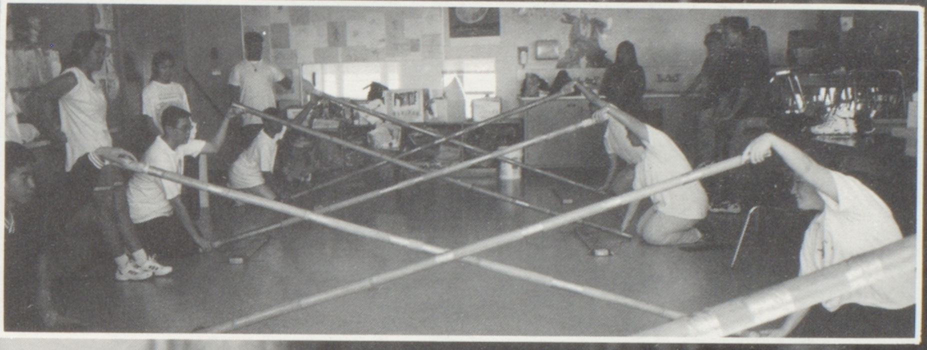
Taking a quick breather after their rigorous hike, the Outing Club perch on an old branch in the middle of Mt. Diablo.

Whoa! No close-ups please! Outing Club members show off the piled up mud on their shoes and pants. These guys and gals are serious when it comes down to their outdoor adventures.



In one of their many heated debates on issues inside and out of school, (from left to right) Jennifer Harris glares at Suzanne Kiehn, who pounds the podium during her retort, and Cynthia Chew shockingly looks on.



Chopsticks? No! The Tinkling clappers of the Filipino Organization practice the last pose with the bamboo sticks.

Isolated in their bunks, the Key Club girls had to think up their own activities to pass the time. At the Regional Fall Training Camp, Alameda Key Club [illegible] learned exciting facts to bring back to the unfortunate members who couldn't make it. Cali-Nev-Ha, Cali-Nev-Ha, Division 2 is coming through, watcha gonna do!

There are a lot of people who contribute to the making and showing of a play, and it takes a lot of practice. This is where the Drama Club members come to express their ideas and feelings on their new production. Located in the old building, the Little Theater is home to all Drama students and club members. The most recent productions are the One Act plays.

I can't believe it Fin! You are all grown up
And ready to graduate from High School.
It wasn't long ago you just started Kindergarten. You were so tiny (not much has changed). You're the last of the Rosado's to graduate from AHS. You have made all of us so proud of you. You know that you are our baby, and that we will always be here for you, whenever, and wherever you may be. Buena suerte en los años que vienen y Dios te bendiga en todo que hagas. But ju know what, you still such a brat! Te queremos mucho

Congratulations Misty Ann Nobela

To Our Darling Misty,
You have made us all very proud because of who you are and all the accomplishments and the talent in which you have endowed. You are an intelligent, sweet, loving young lady. You have always been very helpful especially to the less fortunate and sick. Your ambition to be a M.D. suits you perfectly. Misty, you're an angel sent from heaven. You've always given our home joy, laughter and love. We will miss you when you are in college. We love you dearly. May God continue to love and guide you.

Ate Tote,
Well, Congratulations! We're so proud of you and your many accomplishments. With your intelligence, maturity and your dedication, you'll go far in the future. You have also been a great role model for me and my brothers. Thank you for the fun family times! I love you. - Jennifer and the J. Osalbo Family Yippee Ate Kapatees! You did it! Now you're finally on your way. I'm so excited for you! Well, before your journey begins, I just want to say thank you for always helping your cuz out when I needed to talk to you. Geezers, you're so smart, just like your Ates! Don't worry about you know who, look at it this way, you're saving money and a trip down there to go visit. You always manage to keep our family together and I admire that. You're so strong and independent, so let's go burn our bras. I AM WOMAN, HEAR ME ROAR! Keep on whackin for the love of our family. I love you dummy!

What It Is To Be Me

I make my own decisions & I make up my own mind.
I pay for my actions with consequences.
I have my own set of rules and limits.
I'm my own person and no one else's. An individual.
I don't belong to anyone. I belong to myself.
And I am not in any way selfish.

My life is busy. At times stressful.
I breath, eat, sleep, play basketball, and make money.
What ever else I do is what ever else I can do.
Teenage years are turning points. Finding out who you are, who you want to become, and who your true friends are.

People see me in different ways.
I have many sides to being me. I'm smart, funny, athletic, poetic, talkative, strong-minded. I talk, I hear, I listen.
I practice, I experience, I learn. ... I mean what I say,
I stand for what I believe in, I give thanks to my ancestors and most of all I give thanks to life and the heavens up above.

I keep it real cause it's a waste of time being fake.
I may have attitude, and sometimes I'm rude. I may be hardheaded, stubborn, mean and even confusing.
But I am never jealous, never filled with hate, and I am never what you may call "ugly".

I have so much to live for, to strive for. My life doesn't stop if you don't like me, or agree with how I live. My today brings promise, and my tomorrow brings change. I am determined to be "somebody". Most of all I'm determined to be me.

Despite all of the sweat and tears, we made it! Thanks to the yearbook class of 1997-98. Everyone did an exceptional job and I'm proud of our accomplishments. Thanks to Lisa for helping me get the job done. Nancy, Karen, and Diem- Aren't you finished yet !?! Thanks for all of your extra time and hard work. Gayle- I'll make sure those division pages are finished a little earlier next time. Ms. Klinger- Thanks for being so dedicated and for making the effort to learn. We couldn't have done it without you. Hey Lisa! Are you ready to go around one more time? This is it! See you next year, Hornets!

P.S. B.A.H.!!!!

Lisa Horton

It's time to say good-bye to this years' staff and hello to the new, bright ideas for next year. First, thanks to Ms. Klinger who stepped into this position not knowing what to expect-but making the best of it. Don't worry, it'll get better, I promise. Bro, what can I say-w/o you yearbook just wouldn't be the same. Thanks for keeping this book in order. Mom-All the after-school hours and running tons of errands for this-thanks, you're a lifesaver. Ms. Falletti-thank you for staying on your toes with all the money-let's do lunch! Kathryn, Zanette, Karen-thanks for working so hard and being so committed-you'll always be remembered. Nancy, Diem, Maggie, Jamie, Melissa, Mariam-You all stepped into your positions not knowing what to expect. You've done a wonderful job. And the rest of the staff-A job well done. I hope to see you all again next year.

-Lisa

MS. KLINGER

TO MY INCREDIBLE STAFFERS AND PARTICULARLY BRO AND LISA:

YOU ALL WORKED SO HARD, HAD SUCH GREAT IDEAS, SHOWED CREATIVITY AND DISCIPLINE AND ... YOU TAUGHT ME EVERYTHING I KNOW. HERE'S TO YOU AND THE TERRIFIC BOOK YOU MADE!

MS. KLINGER

If you look hard enough into your own reflection, as Tarijia Finley does, you can see the years past and memories which have brought you to today..... so let's say farewell to the school year 1997-1998 and look towards tomorrow.
